

Projector Systems and Audio Solutions

Why Projectors Matter

- Group evangelism
- Village movie nights
- Jesus Film presentations
- Leadership training
- Community education

Types of Projectors

Pico Projectors

- Pocket-sized
- Battery powered
- Easy transport
- Small groups

Portable Projectors

- Brighter output
- Larger audiences
- Village gatherings

Full-Size Projectors

- Church settings
- Schools
- Large community events

Connecting Projectors to Raspberry Pi

HDMI Connection

- Most common method
- Plug-and-play operation

USB Media Playback

- Stored content

Wireless Options

- Local network streaming

Screens and Display Options

- Portable Screens
- Foldable Screens
- White Sheet Method
- Building Walls
- Classroom Walls

Audio Systems

Why Audio Matters

- Audio Bibles
- Worship music
- Teaching
- Evangelism
- Community announcements

Portable Speakers

Bluetooth Speakers

Rechargeable Speakers
Solar-Powered Speakers

Public Address Systems
Battery-Powered PA Systems
Portable Mission Systems
Church Sound Systems

Connecting Audio to Raspberry Pi

- Bluetooth
- 3.5 mm Audio Output
- USB Audio Devices
- HDMI Audio

Village Teaching Applications

- Outdoor Movie Nights
- Children's Bible Programs
- Leadership Training
- Bible Studies
- Evangelistic Meetings

Sample Village Setup

- Raspberry Pi VillageServer
- Solar power system
- Portable battery system
- Pico projector
- Portable screen
- Bluetooth speaker
- Phone charging station

Why This Matters

One Raspberry Pi can reach one person.

A Raspberry Pi with a projector and speakers can reach an entire village.